

REQUIRED:
2 PLAYERS / ~15 MINUTES
10 STONES FOR EACH PLAYER

LIBERIAN QUEAH

SETUP:

Players each select a color and place 4 of their stones on their side of the board. The rest are held as replacements.

HOW TO WIN:

Players win by capturing all of their opponent's stones.

ON YOUR TURN:

First, if necessary, replace a captured stone.

Second, move or capture with one of your stones.

Third, remove captured stones from the board.

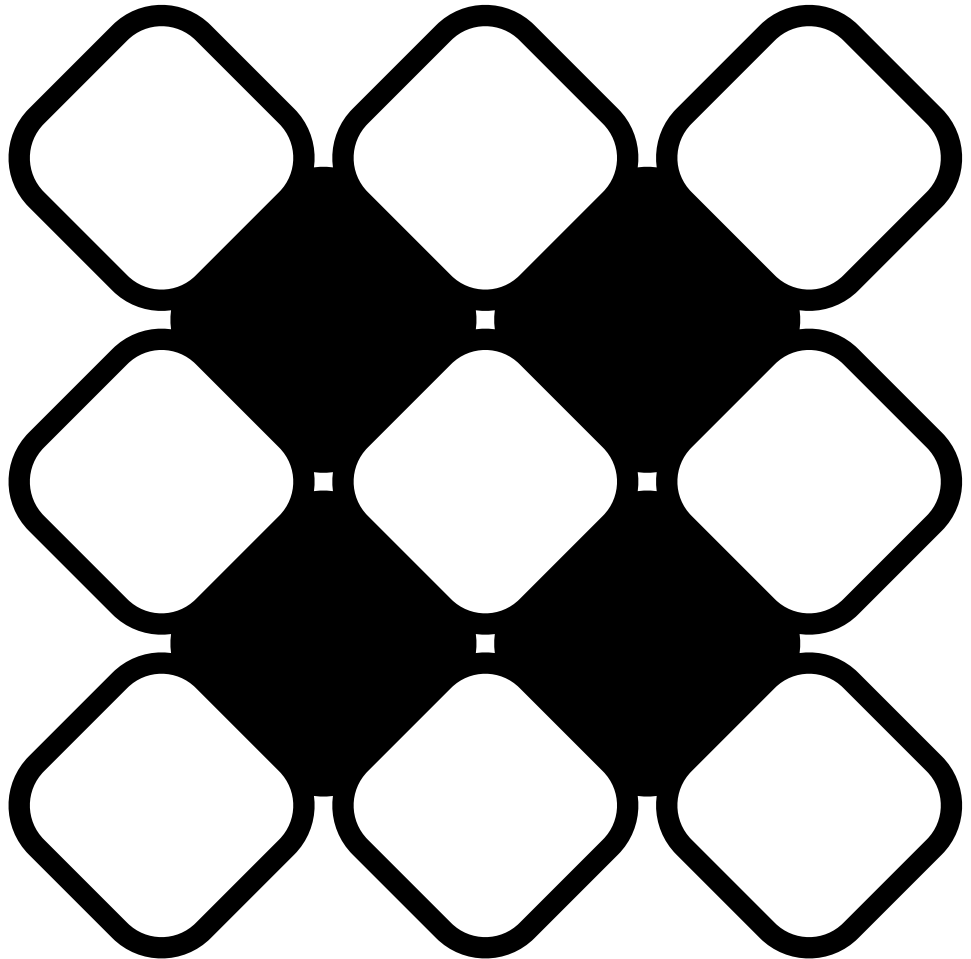

MOVEMENT:

Stones move 1 space, onto a space of the opposite color.

To capture, a stone moves onto an opponent's stone and then to an empty space immediately beyond.

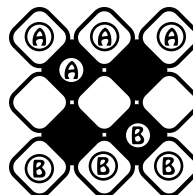

OTHER RULES:

Stones are replaced immediately after they are captured.

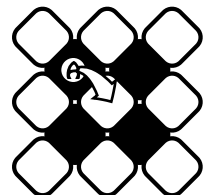

Replacement stones may be placed on any empty space.

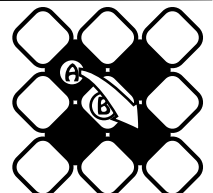

STARTING POSITIONS:

MOVEMENT:

CAPTURING:

REQUIRED:
2 PLAYERS / ~15 MINUTES
4 STONES FOR EACH PLAYER

MU TORRERE

SETUP:

Players each select a color and place their stones on their side of the board.

HOW TO WIN:

Players win by preventing their opponent's stones from moving.

ON YOUR TURN:

Move one of your stones.

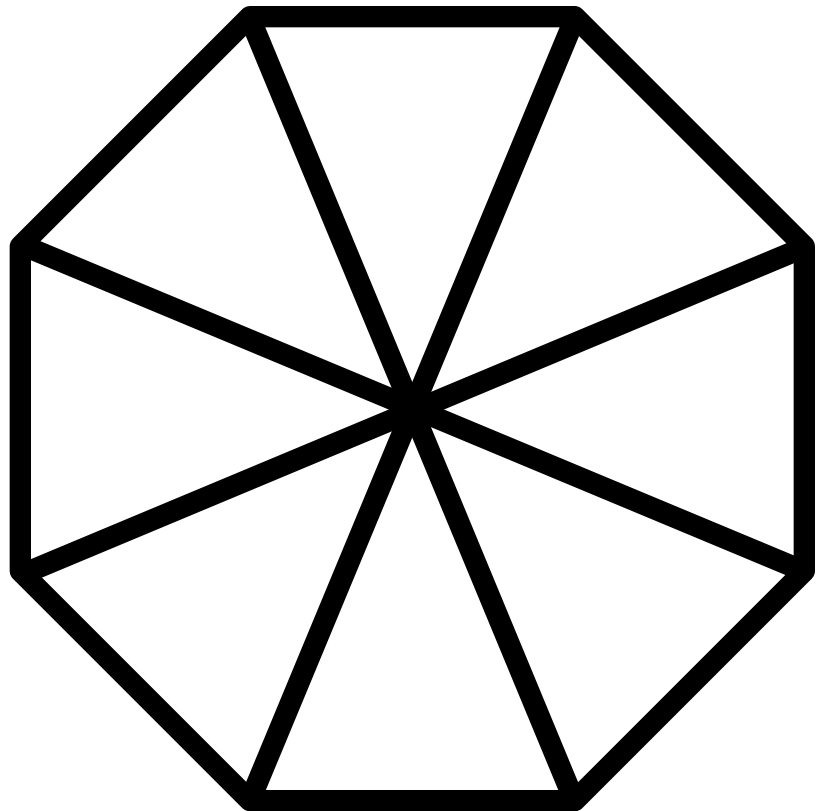

MOVEMENT:

Stones move 1 space, along a line, to an empty adjacent intersection.

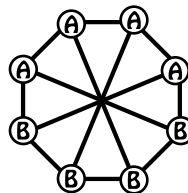

A stone may only move to the center if it starts adjacent to an opponent's stone.

OTHER RULES:

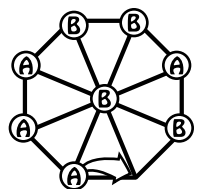

A player must move if possible.

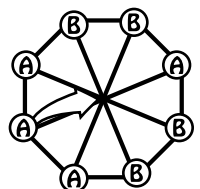

STARTING POSITIONS:

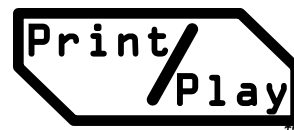

MOVEMENT:

NOT ALLOWED:

REQUIRED:
2 PLAYERS / ~15 MINUTES
8 STONES FOR EACH PLAYER

FOUR-FIELD KONO

SETUP:

Players each select a color and place their stones on their side of the board.

HOW TO WIN:

Players win by capturing all of their opponent's stones.

ON YOUR TURN:

First, move or capture with one of your stones.

Second, remove captured stones from the board.

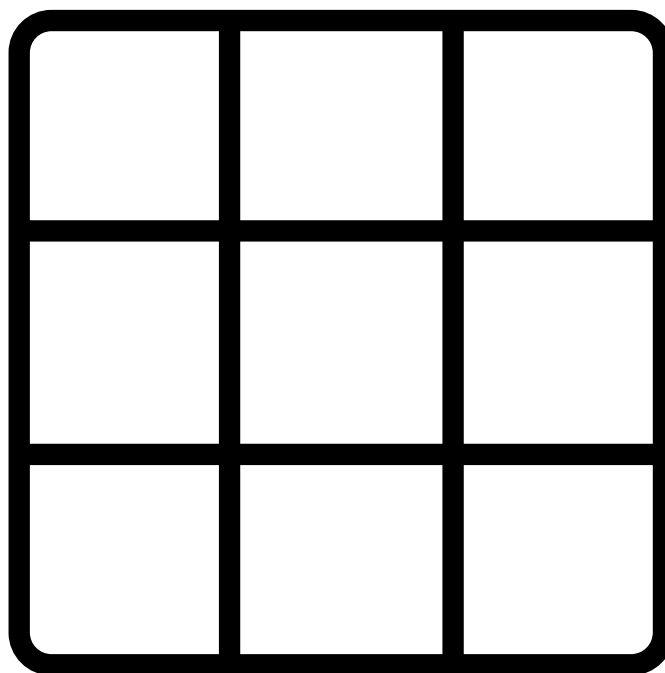

MOVEMENT:

Stones move 1 space, along a line, to an empty adjacent intersection or corner.

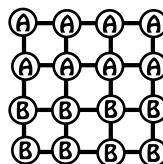

To capture, a stone jumps over a friendly stone and lands on an opponent's stone in the same line.

OTHER RULES:

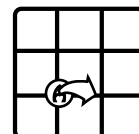

Capturing is not mandatory.

STARTING POSITIONS:

MOVEMENT:

CAPTURING:

